Oregon Third in the Siver and Barbor Bill-World's Fair Measure Pavorably Reported to the Senate.

Washington, April II.—[Obegonian Office, Corper Titicenth Street and Pennsylvania Avenue.]—Chairman Dingley has appointed the special committee officered by the republican caucus last night to prepare a sliver bill for the cascus. The members are the eight republican members of the coluge committee, Conger, Beckham, Walker, Carter, Comstock, Barbine, Knapp, Taylor, and the following additional members: McKinley, Cannon, Havne, McKenna, Perkins, Henderson and McComss. The committee held its first meeting this afternoon. The Senate committee consists of Mercill, Sherman, Allison, Hiscock, Jones, Aldrich, Teller, Mitchell, Platt, Manderson, Davis, Pierce and McMitchell, Platt, Manderson, Davis, Pierce and McMitchell, Teller, and it is said that they have about agreed or will agree on a measure that will mean practically free coinage, with a few restrictions. At all events, they will prepare a bill that they can vote for, and vote down all amendments offered by the opposition. It is also intended to get as close to the feelings of the republican member of the house as possible, that they may be no friction between the parties in the opposite wints of the capitol. The favorable sentiment toward silver by those who were supposed to be attenuity opposed to a greater coinage is one of the surprises of this congress. The silver men say that they believe they will get a bill very nearly multifactory to them, and that the resultions. matisfactory to them, and that the republican party will champion the measure. Just what they mean, unless it is practically unlimited coin-age, is not known, but it certainly means that the clume of silver ourrency is to be largely in-reased.

Just before the senate adjourned this afternoon, awley reported the World's fair bill with amend-FSURANCE CO.

LIEBIG COMPANY'S The river and harbor bill is about ready to report to the house. Representative Hermann says that liberal provisions have been made for Oregon, but the figures are yet kept under seal, by order of the committee. Senster Mitchell's boat railway bill is not in the measure, and neither are the large Galveston and Soo bills as passed by the senste, although provision is made to carry on the work as St. Mary's river. The commutate, however, has agreed to take up these bills at an userly date and consider their either separately or as an omnibus measure.
Oregon stands third in the list of states in point of size of appropriation, and the members of the committee informed Mr. Hermann that he would be unwise to try to force an appropriation for the

Had it not been for Senator Evarts to-day Sanders and Powers might have been now sworn in and Montana have had representatives in the senate for the first time. The venerable New York lawyer has inslated all slong that he should close the debate on the Montana case. The democrate refused to talk any more to-day, and the roll call was begun, whon Mr. Evarts entered and began his speech. He empited the senate and gallery, and was followed by democratic orators, who now intend to talk until they all get tired. Two or three names were called, and the announcements of pairs were being made when Mr. Evarts stopped all further proceedings. The Montana case would have been settled in ten minutes more.

IN THE SENATE, The Long-Winded Evarts Prevents a Vote

washington, April II.—In the senate consideration of the Montana election case was resumed, and as no senator sought the floor the year and mays were ordered on the first resolution. The role was about being taken when. Evarts suggested that if no senator on the other side desired to speak, he would make the closing argument in support of the committee's report. Morgan said that siter hearing the senator from New York he might feel himself required to say something.

York the might feel himself required to say something.

Evarts then proceeded to state in detail the facts and circumstances of the Nontana election, and to discuss the powers of the terticolat causassing board, on which, he said there was no limitations imposed by the stallute in words. By that means, he said, its powers were unlimited within the sense that belong to the phrase to which it was applied. After a long dissortation on the duties and dologs of county and territorial cauvasses, in the course of which he criticised the soverage of which he criticised the course of the anticology such presents; to adult only such persons as were softled to go in, thus making him for the occasion judge of which were and who not elected as reprocentatives. Evarts said the proposition on the democratic side was that the senate was to be a cauvassing board higher than the territorial can ranking board, whils the proposition on the shouldcap side was that the senate had no such power of revision. The latter, he said, was a proposition of safety to the senate and of one of the course of the cou

After further dehate floor gave notice that on Monday he should sak the senate to remain in session until the Montana case was dispused of seesion until the Montana case was dispused of, Hawley, from the select committée on the quadre-centennial celebration, reported beck with an amendment the house bill for a World's fair at Chicago, and said he hoped to have it pessoul Monday. After an executive session the senate adjourned. The scuate confirmed the following sominees: Lewis A. Grant, assistant secretary of war; Brigadier-General Reison A. Miles, major general; Colonel R. H. Grierson, brigadier general; Major T. H. Statuon, deputy paymaster general; Major T. H. Statuon, deputy paymaster general; J. H. Claney, of Indiana, indian inspector.

Tin the House.

Wasmington, April IL—In the house the contested election case of Waddell vs. Wise. from the Tbird district of Virginis, was taken up, and Lacey made an argument in favor of the contestant. O'Ferrall of Vigitis supported the resolution of the minority, declaring the seat racsul. After considerable debate and without disposing of the matter, the house took a recess until evening.

The house at the evening session did no business. Enloy of Tennessee gave notice that until the house should allow private bills to be consid-ered Fridaya be would allow no pension bills to be passed Friday nights. He then made a long argument in favor of payment of Southern was claims. After considerable talk on this subject and pensions, the house adjourned.

Western Men Indignant at Their With-drawal From Entry.

Washington, April 11.—[Special Telegram.]—
The Western men in congress are mole or less stirred up over an order issued by Secretary Noble withdrawing from homestead and pre-emption withoutawing from homestead and pre-emptions settlement all lands in the sn-called arid or itriguible lands west of the 100th moridian. This affects land in Western Dastots, Nobraska and Kansas, and also land in Montans, Idaho, Washington and Oregon, though in the latter state the area is small. This withdrawal is made under the irrigation act of 1888, which says that the secretary shall withdraw the lands upon the request of the superintendent of the geological survey when he states that the lands are irrigable and needed for reservoir purposes, a large delegation, including the representatives from the Dakotas, Montana and Washington, called our the secretary and saked him to resind the order, stating that no examination had been made of the lands withdrawn. The secretary said he would give the master further consideration. Another order has also been launed denying the state of the trigation law of the lands withdrawn and pre-emptors of the trigation law of the lands, and they want to remove the control of it to the agricultural department. The conflict between the Powell Irrigationists.

gation matters with a high hand, and they went to remove the control of it to the agricultural department.

The conflict between the Powell irrigationists and the anti-Powell geologists is increasing. The chier day the committee on agriculture had before them Captain Dutton, of the United States army, an experienced man, who knows all about the workings of the irrigation movement. He says that of the $250,000 appropriated last year for irrigation surveys only $10,000 was spent on irrigation surveys only $10,000 was spent on irrigation surveys more, the halance being used up on tope-graphic nevers. For irrigation surveys are not necessary, but Major Powell units that topographic surveys. To this the irrigation men object, and insist that money appropriated for irrigation must be used for that purpose and not for the surveys which Powell demands. The result of the investigation now being made may ald the men who are trying to place irrigation under the agricultural department.

Secretary Noble to-day rendered an elaborate and exhaustive decision in the case of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company against haithew Roberts, who elaimed a homestead right in section 3, towarbip 5, range 2 of the Helena, Montal district. The case involved the rights of a homesteader on lands within the limit of a railroad great on which settlement had been made prior to filing the map of definite location. The company held that the term "homestead sattler" could only be applied to those who have made entry in the local land o file of lands claimed by them prior to the withdrawal of the leands granted to a corporation. The werefary holds that the homesteader's logal rite date back to the lime of settlement, his ruling in the case being precuely in him with the ruling of the department in the case of a pre-emption made prior to the withdrawal of public land. Thesettler gets the lands.

A washerwoman named Eliza Hillson was arrested a few days ago while trying to pawn a handsome gold watch which had an inscription on the case showing that it was given to Mr. White twenty-six years ago by his congregation at the Savoy chapel. NEW ASTORIA, situated just across young's Bay from Astoria, about 3 1-2 miles distant, is one of the most inviting fields for investment in the Northwest on the completion of the Astoria & South Coast Railroad, and the Albany & Astoria Railroad, the business lots now selling for $150 to $200 will doubtless be very valuable. The history of New Tacoma will be repeated. There is sure to be a great city at the mouth of the Columbia river, and New Astoria is the most desirable location for a city that could be selected, and with two great railroads terminating hera. New Astoria is destined to become a great shipping and commercial center. Those who are most familiar with the situation are the most eager for investment.

Only 70 miles more to be graded to connect New Astoria with the great Southern Pacific Railway system. Send for descriptive circular and may of New Astoria. Only a few years ago a block in Spokane Falls was offered for $800, it is now reported to be worth $300,000. New Astoria will surely have as rapid growth as any city in the Northwes. Make a thorough investigation and act accordingly.

AMUSEMENTS THIS EVENING

The miners of Okanogan, who have been shut off during the winter months, have just succeeded in gotting their protest sent down against the maining bill, says the Seattle Port Intelligencer. The most objectionable feature is in section 3, providing for survey within ninety days. On account of the hazardous nature of most of the claims and the difficulty of reaching them, the cost of an enforced survey before a prospect can be made is declared an outrage upon the miners, and there seems to be considerable justice in their complaint.

To this country the danger of war may justly be regarded as a remote one; yet wars have come and will come again, and though we could in the end ropel any invader, yet we should loose at the beginning, our sea-board cities, which would either be des-troyed or forced to pay, such tribute as an enemy might exact. Our ports are without delense. Every military man regards it as supreme folly to let the construction in supreme folly to let the country remain in its present unprotected condition. General Miles stated recently to the senate committee m coast defenses that within aix weeks fifty-seven British war vessels could reach San Francisco. In an interview published in a New York journal, he said the whole British navy could be concentrated at New York in two months. Against such a force we have absolutely no means of detense. Listen to what General Miles says of our co-They were very good for thirty years ago. But appliances of war have so changed in the last thirty years that there is as much difference behe old and the new as there was between bows and arrows and freature years ago. The weight of metal and the range of guns, the rapidity of fire, the desiractive power of the weapone that are now used by other civilized nations are toward to what we have that there is no comparison. This country is about the most unprepared in the world for wer. We are getting into the same condition that China was in many years ago. But China tow has a better navy than ours, and an army seven times as large as ours. The despised Chinete could do us serious injury. We count was by being in a condition in which any third-rate power could take advantage of us intressure or for alunder or to confirm the property.

General Miles went on to say that it is mere nonsense to talk about hasty but sure preparation in case of threatened dan-ger. Most ware begin without any formal ger. Most wars begin misses begin the fighting first and make the declaration of war afterwards. We could not make prepara-tions and get ready our defenses in time; we would be taken at a serious disadyan

In congress recently an exhibit was made of the possible loss that could be inflicted by the action of hostile fleetr in the harbors of our principal cities. In New York property could be destroyed worth $2,000,000,000; Brooklyn, $30,000,000; Jersey City, $100,000,000; Portland, Me., $33,000,000; Boston and Cambridge $531,000,000; Ballimore, $220,000,000; San Francisco, $181,000,000; Kewport, $24,000,000; Philadelphia, $750,000,000; New Orleans, $175,000,000; in other smaller and equally defenseless scapart uities $2,000,000,000 more, making an aggre-gate of about $6,000,000,000.pppeed to for-eign foos. Who doubts that in the event- of serious trouble with other nations this great temptation would invite prompt attack?

Why should not the country use its surplus revenue to build up a system of coast naval defense, improve its rivers and harbors and carry on other public works? Wouldn't this policy be better than that of outing off the sevenue derived from liquors and tobacco, reducing utmes to a me basis and buying our goods abroad? co, reducing duties to a free trade

COLONIZATION, NOT CIVILIZATION Our most recent dispatches announce that according to the judgment of Stanley the Germans intend to annex the equatorial provinces, or lake regions, of Central Atrica, and their access, Stanley says, means the destruction of the value of the British coast possessions. As a matter of fact, England, France, Germany, Italy and Portugal all have colonies on the East African coast, and all these powers, unless it be Italy, have colonies on the West coast. England holds the port of Suakin on the Red son, and, of course, holds it not for present, but for future value, when she gets ready to claim and conquer Sondan. Further down the Red sea, Italy holds Massowah from which how with yah from which she will some day proha-bly move on Abyssinia. England has long held Aden at the mouth of the Red sea. England and Germany both have cotonial establishments on the coast of Zanzibar, hear the equator. The German possessions include a number of missionary establishments and a large trading company, and Major Wisaman, the German commander, has recently reduced to submission the most powerful chief of the Arab hosthost powerful chief of the Arab hos-tiles. Bill further south, in Mozam-Mque, the Portuguese have under-taken to extend their authority westward and have come into collision with the Eng-lish trading posts which represent the African Lake Company in the Shire region and along Lake Nyassa. The company have 100,000 coffee trees, and on the 17th of March igland formally took the whole region on both sides of the Shire river under protection. Portugat a year ago established a chain of friendly villages in this region, but Engand ordered Portugal to get out at once and she had to obey, and England has thus secured one of the most civilized, healthy and prosperous spots in all Africa. se country is very mountainous, lies in the highlands of this part of Africa, and white ous. Twenty-five whites live there in the service of the Airican Lakes Company, Which runs three steamers The finest mission stations in Africa are on Lase Nyassa, and at one of them 1300 children are now attending school. In the matter of the Delagon Bay railroad Portugal will have to recedo probably from its atwill have to recede probably from its attempt to keep the rallway and its lands and exclude England from Mozambique. The rallway is owned by Englishmen and by the McMurdo estate. McMurdo was an Ameran officen and his widow is now seeking justice of the rallway in the rallway ean officen and his widow is now seeking jus-tice at Washington. Portugal therefore, once the hold pioneer in planting settlements at St. Paul de Loando, on the Congo, the Zambezi and in Mozambique is not likely to increase, har de tearlieur and the backetic her her old territory and will be lucky if she does not lose the best of it. France is rapidly expanding her territory in Western Africa. Five years ago the only valuable Preuch colony on the west coust was that of Benegal, but to-day France's boundaries are Senegal, but to-day France's boundaries are advanced to the Niger; her possessions now extend from the Senegal river to the Ivory swast on the Gulf of Guinea. These new ter-ritories extend north and south about 990 miles. France dreams of a vast empire in West Africa, which shall extend across the Bahara and form an unbroken line of stations from Algeria to the Gulf of Guinea.

The situation to-day in Africa is about when all Western Europe joined hands to colonies the western Europe joined ands to colonize the newly discovered finent of America, and it will be for many years colonization rather than civilization. Joseph Thomson, a Scotch mission-ary, declares that the only bright spot in the black expanse of Africa is the colony of Scotch merchants and missionaries at lake Nyssa. He declares that from the Indian ocean to the Congo our intercourse with the African has been an unmitigated curse to him. Our sommerce in Africa has been represented by the slave trade, the gin trade, gunpowder, guns and tobacco, Mr. Thomsonsays: "The Fhips which trade to Africa are loaded with gin out of all proportion to more useful articles; the warehouses along the coast are Bited with it. The air seems to reck with the vile stuff, and every but is redelent of the vile stuff, and every but is redolent of its fumes. Over large areas it is almost the-sole ourrency, and in many parts the year's wares of the neggo factory workers to paid in spirits, with which they return home to by a lew days of fiendish debauch. Women and children, with scarcely a rag on their flitty, benetted persons, follow one ment engity bescending a little gin or tobacco. Riernally gin and tobacco, hardly the slightest evidence of a desire for any-thing higher." These temptations and vices of civilization are destined to destroy the greater part of the natives of Africa before be moral basis is reached which will enable the races to resist them and grow strong in their presence. Such has been the experience in all other parts of the world where civilised people have come in contact with savage races, and Africa will furnish a repetition of it.

REFURMERS ABROAD.

The "union party," a title that means something or nothing according to the ele-ments used in the combination—the latter in this instance—held a convention at Oregon Gity a few days ago, put out a preten-tious but rather ambiguous platform and a licket, with the exception that the two most important offices in the state were marked. "to be supplied."

By means of this ticket, and the publicity given to the same through THE OREGONIAN, several hitherto unknown men are introduced to the public of Oregon, modestly that the state government (except that portion represented by the governor and judge of the supreme court) be intrusted to their hands for the next four years. Pledges of funds to carry campaign aggregating something over $1000 were made, several counties promising to give $10 to the fund, while Multanemah county beat the score and did berseif proud by putting down $152 50 in the cause of re-torm. The Pacific Express and Public Opinion, two highly influential journals, are to make the campaign as hot as $500 apieca will justify. The hight of virtuous enthus-iasm was reached when an assessment of $1 per capita was levied upon the mem-bers to defray the expenses of the bere to defray the expenses of the state organizer, a godly man who had before been selected for this important duty. Each member vied with all the others in eagerness member vice with all the cineral eagerness to get his dollar on the table with clangor becoming the importance of the coin, and, as the sum of $66 25 was raised in this way, It is clear that some delegate must have grown extravagant and added a quarter to his sum, or that one "had not come prepared to meet the demand and had been forced to beg off with the payment of a quar-ter. However this might have been, the sums designated were raised and the "union party" of Oregon is in the field bravely challenging corruption and determined to hear aloft the flag of referm for all that there is in the pot.

The platform, as bessems an effort to catch

The pictorm, as beseems an error to caton the votes of erratic persons of various schools, takes a wide range. By the preamble we learn that the chief objects of government are to secure the rights of life, liberty and property to citizens, and that to rescue these imperied rights from the evils of class iegislation is the mission of the "union party." The platform wanders through fourteen resolutions in which various mands" are formulated. Among other things the government is required to become possessor of or supremedictator in the trans-portation business of the country; the tariff system must be sholished; the liquor traffic must be prohibited; foreigners must be educated before permitted to vote (the convention was not hard on government, and equal pay for equal labor, regardless of sex, must be insisted upon by regardless of sex, must be insisted upon by the same power; taxes must be levied upon incomes and not upon farms, and eight hours must be made to constitute a legal day's labor. Of course there are other things that the "unionist party" proposes to reform, but these, if not the chief meas-ures which its partisans intend to bring about by honest votes, are sufficient to give the public a test of the notification. the public a taste of its quality, and to cate the size of the job that the political cranks of Oregon have undertaken. The idea of a "campaign fund" in connection with so much honest effort at reform may not be relished by the captious critics, but the brethren doubtless hope to escape cen-sure on the plea of the young woman who based her excuss for motherhood without the saving grace of wifebood on the ground that the result of her indiscretion "was such a little one."

EVERYDAY HEROISM.

The engineer of the steamer "City of Paris," during the indescribable excitement of the passengers, made his way into the engine room, which was filled with rising water and scalding steam, and shut off the power of the broken engines. By his so, the createst danger was averted and a them. power of the broken engines. By his act the greatest danger was averted and a thousand lives saved. The service was votuntary and the risk desperate, and the heroic deed was done simply from a sense of duty. Three lines told the tale, while the name of the man is not even given. It was an act of commonplace heroism, performed without estentation, and for that reason alone there was a spirit of chivary in the celthere was a spirit of chivairy in the act, that made the scene splendid with his quiet

Human courage and chivalry are not as rare in our prosaic age as the pessimist is wont to assert. Scarcely a newspaper is printed that does not contain the record of some tale like this, some story revealing that the human race preserves the choice virtue of heroism. No emergency is so great that some daring soul from out the mulitude is not found to meet and conquer the situation. The every day events the situation. The every day events with their heroes are apt to be underestimated in the philosophy of civilization. Every branch of life is full to teaming with men who are expected to perform duties around which cluster dangers in countless form.

The rule is these duties are bravely and armiy met. They seidom stop to count the changes. Abandonment of duty forms but the rare exceptions.

Small tricks of scifishness and cowardice vanish in the face of great calamity. The shell is nothing, the kernel of manifess in Americans is seldom lacking. True courage Americans is seldom lacking. True courage does not go about seeking for an opportunity to vaunt itself, but rises to the highest need when the occasion comes. The herois age is not past. There are more manly men are in the face when the on earth to day than in that age when the flower of European chivalry sought to wrest the boly land from the Moslems.

THE GREAT BRITISH COLONIES.

The question of the future of Canada has been most ably discussed by Sir Charles Dilke. He sees no drift towards union with the United States, or toward complete independence, yet finds that the scheme of imperial federation is impracticable, since Canada is wedded to tradition too strongly to mive it up. Of commercial union with the give it up. Of commercial union with the United States, he believes the consequence would be ultimate political fusion, sir Dominion having become commercially de-pendent on the United States, could not expect to remain politically dependent on Great Britain, while admitting American manufactures free and prohibiting the importation of British goods.

Nor does Sir Charles Dilke find the scheme of imperial federation at large any assurance of effective imperial defense. The colonies of Queensland and New South Wales are so entirely hostile to even the discussion of this plan that they are far more likely to declare for independence than to favor this confederation. When Mr. Rackin, the orator of the imperial federation league, spoke not long ago at Sydney he was treated with derision, and a resolution was mored by a member of the upper house of the New Bouth Wales parliament and seconded by a member of the lower house, to the effect that the interests of Australia pointed not to imperial. federation, but to an independent nation. atity. Not does fit Charles Dike find any syidence in Canada that she would join an imperial federation, and assent to a customs union, which is a fundamental feature of the scheme; and he believes that the time is gone by when the mother country would attempt to coerce Canada or Australia. should either of these great dependencies pronounce for independence.

The danger of the British empire is not threatened by the United States, for we have only peaceful feelings toward our Canada cousins. The annexation of the Dominion to-day would be equivalent to an attempt to dandle a Canada porcupine in our lap; we should be filled so full of quills that ould be heartly sick of the experiment. If Canada desired annexation it could not and would not be resisted by the mother country.

He dismisses this thought of resistance to the secession of Canada or even Australia with the remark that the time has gone by when the mother country would attempt to coerce Cauada or Australia. Canada's destiny, he concludes, is ultimately annexation to the United States.

The imaginary spectacle of Satan rebuking sin was represented in the United States senate Wednesday when Turple of Indiana made a speech overflowing with virtuous wrath on the question of seating the Montana senators. The opportunity was one too good to be missed by republicans, and Toller responded by recalling the infamous methods to which the democratic legislators of Indiana resorted in order to give Turple the seat that he held. When gentlemen of the senate lose their presence of mind and begin to tell cach other facts upon this matter, the chances are that the public will matter, the chances are that the public will learn some things, on first-class evidence, that will tend to strengthen the popular de-mand for the election of United States senstors by a direct vote of the people. Unless one side had something to hoast over the other relative to the methods used to secure the senate, representatives of both would do well to display modesty in the assamption of virtue or indignation in this line. The loitiest flight of indignant elequence, the most burning sarcasm, and contemptuous scorn that it is possible to in-dulge on either side concerning the methods by which senators are elected, is suggestive of nothing more dignified than the homely simile of the "pot calling the kettle black." There are few senators who can afford to engage in this airing of methods and certainly Turple of Indiana is not one of them. A denunciatory speech from Brice of Ohio or worse taste than this effort of the Indiana

It is believed that Portland never until yesterday saw a flurry of snow in the month of April. Snow fell in Portland March 10, 1882, and sometimes has fallen even later in the month of March; but snow in April, even in the small quantity that fell yeater-day, is unprecedented at Portland. Of course in the high altitudes and mountain districts of the state snow-fall is not unthe month of March: but snow in usual in this month; and indeed in some of these localities snow probably falls within every month of the year. The mountains now are unusually full of snow, and to this fact doubtless is due the uncommonly low temperature of the season throughout the Northwest. The situation is portentous of Americans); strikes must be settled by the bigh water in the Columbia river about the and of June. If low temperature continues, halding the snow back till late, and then sidden heat brings it all down with a rush -a result that becomes more probable with each week of low temperature—there will be a flood perhaps equal to any that has

In this way, in the course of a few years, the pressure upon the supreme court will be permanently removed and the imputation of tardiness lifted from the highest court in the land.

The ennouncement that the Southern Pa-cific Railroad Company is "out of politics" sounds well, but the public know that assoelations of the kind which Mr. Huntington acknowledges through renouncing them are not shaken off with a few words. The whole atory-never before admitted, however-is told in the wrathful declaration of Mr. Huntington that "if a man wants to be con-stable he thinks he must first come to Fourth and Townsend streets to get permission." It is asking a good deal of a public, not over credulous in this direction, to expect it to believe that a few hos words from a pestered, worn and nervous railway mana persector, work and nervous ranway man-ager will correct this gigantic abuse. In commenting on the passage of the bill to admit Idaho to statehood, the New York World says: "The republican scheme to erect every barron territory into a state is certain to be carried out, and it is perhaps that as well that the just as well that the democratic should take the form of absolute slience."
When the World speaks of Idaho as "barren," that paper perhaps forgets her mines, her forests, her cattle, her wheat fields and streams. If elements such as these make barren states we may well pray nature for large gifts of barrenness. But even if Idaho were "barren," and could be relied upon as a rotten democratic borough, democrats in congress would be only too glad to enroll among the states.

She presented quite a formidable appearance as she lay at anchor, her main battery of six guns frowning on San Francisco bay, and her two small guns San Francisco bay, and her two small guns swung aloft in the military masts. The Richard Rush has been the only representative of the United States navy in these waters for so long that the eight of the new cruiser is naturally quite inspiriting.

General Sickles is willing to be sheriff of General Sickles is willing to be sheriff of New York, but he does not want to descend in the scale of titles and be known as "Sher-iff Sickles." It is something of a descent, to be sure, from the title of general, carned by gallant service, to that of sheriff with the stigma that has recently attached to it in New York. General Sickles does not go into detail upon the subject, but hastehed to say: "I am proud of my war record, and do not want my title changed. and do not wunt my title changed.

Articles of incorporation of a street rail-way company in Oregon City have been filed with the secretary of state. Whether the ploneer solitudes of the historic city will be broken by the jingle of the horse car bell, or awakened by the rearing clang of the electric motor is not stated. It is sufficient to know, however, that the old terri-torial capital, the Meeca of the overland immigration of a past era has turned its back, figuratively speaking upon the slow methods of anti-railroad times and is proparing to keep pace with the march of im-provement throughout the state.

The judiclary committee of the lower f congress might have spared itself the needless trouble of reporting in favor of electing United States senators by a direct vote of the people. The senators by a unfer support the measure. The present method suits many, who though they could never gain popular suffrage, have persuasive arguments that succeed frequently in convincing the most obstinate legislature. It is not at all likely that any American citizen now living will ever be able to cast his ballot at the polls for a United States senator.

The next that was heard from Mim at the sheriff softice was a telephone message from Larsen's attorney, to jhe effect that Marquam had been knocked senseicss. Deputy Sheriff Salmon was immediately dispatched to the scene of the trouble. HOW THE BOW STARTED.

It appears that Mr. Marquam went to Glennon's place, North Second between B and O, which has been closed since Saturday week, on an attachment issued from Justice Bilor's court in favor of P. Ellor, for $155. ment issued from Justice Bilor's court, in favor of P. Riley, for time. The wagon belonging to the bakery was gite held under the attachment. In casting about for property to lavy upon, Larsen's attorney hit upon the wagon, and told Deputy Sheriff Marquam to attach it. He accordingly did so. He ordered an express wagon to hitch on to the bakery wagon and take it away. Biley was thereupon apprised of the aution and came out from hit shop. Opening a small pen knife he began to cut the rope which bound the two wagons to each other.

Mr. Bidy said: "Some one came and told me that the wagon was being taken away, and I roshed out to keep it. I am not the man to resist an officer in the discharge of his duty, and had the deputy sherif shown me his papers I should have let him sions. As it was, I whitped out my kulle and began to cut the rope. No sconer had I done this than harquam began to hit me by throwing billiets of wood at my face. I tried to hit him, but he dofged me. I shall prosecute him for assent to-morrow."

SALMON TO THE RESCUE.

When Deputy Sheriff Salmon arrived at the scene of the trouble, he was met by Larsen's atterney, who asked him if he had his gun with him. He replied that he had, and, thurrying to the scene, found filley bleedling from the check and Marquam standing on the sidewalt in a dused condition. He at once unped into the street, with drawn revolver, ited the rope again and said he should esteem it a favor for some one to offer to cut the rope again. Riley stepped forward, but feeling Salmon's cold, steel showed against his disphragm, concluded that discretion was the better part of valor and withdraw. Donuty sheriff Salmon stated the expression of with the party waspon and turned his attention to "qua."

Marquam was taken to the courtbouge and then to his residency, where at last eccounts, he was lying, still unable to give any account of the knockdown. BALMON TO THE RESCUE.

Ed. R. Schweier, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

I hereby certify that I have been SERIOUSLY AFFLHCTED WITH LUNG TROUBLE, which I have hed for nearly two years. I have stied various declors and medicions without any permanent relief. Seven weeks ago to-day I applied to Dr. Aborn, Fourth and Morr son streets, Fortland, whose medicines GAVE ME INSTANT RELIEF, and I have been gaining steadily since. I also had massi catarrà in the most aggravated form, of which the doctor also gave me instant relief, and now I consider myself PERMANENTLY CURED of it. I think that Dr. Aborn's treatment had simost a magical effect in my case, and I take great pleasure in recommending others similarly affected. When I applied to Dr. Aborn I was in almost a hopeless condition. I can be seen and reterred to at any time at the City Creamery, corner Third and Taylor streets, Fordand.

Northern Paoific Guarding Against the June Flood Interfering With Their Transfer Across the Columbia. The Northern Pacific Railway Company have a

The Northern Pacific Railway Company have a large force of men and two gravel trains at work raising the grade of their road near Hunter's and extending the line down the river to Goble's, where the landing for the ferry which transfers trains to Kalama will be moved. This work is being pushed with energy in preparation for the June rise of the Columbia which is not unlikely to be higher than usual. During the late flood the track near Hunter's was covered so that the water was almost into the fire boxes of the locumotives, and if the water water would have come up a few inches more travel to the Sound would have been suspended. To guard against such danger in future the road in the vicinity of Hunter's is being raised about four feet and extended on this grade to Goble's. The ferry landing at Kalama will be moved a short distance down stream. The transfer boat when these changes are completed will cross below the Island and will have to come up stream some distance from Goble's to the Washington landing. It is the intention to have the new landings in readdiness before the June rise reaches its hight.

The Southern Pacific Will Cross the Union Pacific Bridge in About Two Weeks. ortion of the details of the recent agreement A portion of the delails of the recent agreement of the railroad magnins has loaked out. A big passenger depot will be built, with a large yard covered by a roof, similar to that of the Grand Union depot in Chicago, with two tracks for each of the three transcontential lines. Two large froight warehouses, equal in size to that of the new one lately put up, will also be built. The arrangements have also been completed for the Bouthern Pacific to cross the steel bridge. No extra switches will have to be put un, and the arrangement will probably go into effect in about two weeks.

Angement was provided up and in confusion to weeks.
Everything will be tangled up and in confusion out the Southern Pacific yards until the final rangements are made, but almost anything will better than the present inadequate facilities. AROUND PROSPEROUS ALBINA.

Numerous complaints are being made because many streets in this prosperous city are not designated with the required signa. Citizens as well as strangers are somewhat bewidered in regard to finding certain streets when away from the few that are lettered in lower Albina. It must be that the signs, if placed on the street corners where necessary, would rust and wear out, and the council are well known to be somewhat economical outside their salary, for although a large number of signs have been lettered and ready for use for nearly a year, yet these much needed for sale keeping. Some explanation may be in order. PUT UP THOSE STREET SIGNS.

A very enjoyable afternoon was spent in class exercises, after which various games were indulged in. The only thing that marred the pleasures of the visit was an accident which occurred to Professor Young while playing football, by which he had one of his ingers severely injured.

A most remarkable escape from instant death occurred at Glencoe station, on the Mount Tabor motor line. Mr. Bartholomow, a yoneg man who resides on the Lase line road, and whose brother is engaged in the real estate business in Portland, went to Mount Tabor Wednesday afternoon, After getting through his business he stepped on the car intending togo to Portland, pa'd his fare and received from the conductor the usual transfer ticked He said nothing about getting off at any of the way size ions. As the cars were approaching Glencoe, which is about three blocks from his home, Bartholomew was standing on the steps of the back plutform. The cars were speeding at the rate of fifteen mites an hour Just as Glencoe station was reached, he waved his hand to the conductor and then seemed to plungo headfore most from the rapidly moving train. GRAYS HARBOR, WASHINGTON. ++ PORT TOWNSEND, WASH. ++ FASON 1: It has the best harbor of Puget Sound, from Cape Flattery to Olympia, having the most convenient and chorage over the greatest area, from 5 te 15 fathoms deep, with the best holding ground. There are no bars, shoals, rocks or hidden dangers of any kind throughout the entire bay, which is land locked and well sheltered from the stormy winds and from the heavy ocean swell.

EASON 2: Ease of approach from the ocean. A sailing vessel can run direct from the ocean to the anchorage in Port Townsend Bay, with a westerly wind, or beat up to her anchorage with an easterly wind, the Straits of Fuezieing over 12 miles wide, white above Port Townsend to any of the cities the navigation is more intricate, requiring the constant use of tugs. Steamers can run the distance from the ocean to Port Townsend during the densest fogs by skil of their compass alone, there being no hidden danger to apprehend.

EASON 3: It is the port at en-try of Pugot Sound, and its geographical position is such that it will afford greater faculities to commerce over a great-er extent of country than any one position on Puget Sound. EASON 4: It is at the entrance to Admiralty Injet and within the lines of the proposed military works for the defense of Puget Sound, and is where the naval squadron will have a rendezvous, and where the government will build a dry dock for ropairs, and a naval station for supplies for our naval versels and the merchant marine.

EASON 5: It will become the great wheat shipping point on the Pacific Coast.
It has been accertained that from the junction of the Sparke and Columbia rivers to Port Townsend there is a fall of about 400 feet, and that it is practically very nearly a lead grade and is practically very nearly a level grade and that one engine can haul 25 loaded cars to Port Townsend, while it takes two dacapod engines to haul 14 loaded cars through the tunnel to Tacoma. The peninsula which lies between Port Townsend and which lies between Port Townsend and Port Discovery harbors, presents on both these harbors a greater extent of water front than any other position on Puget Sound, both of which can be utilized by one line of railroad, thus offering greater facilities for handling wast quantities of wheat than can be found elsewhere in the whole country.

EASON 6: It will be the head quarters and great point of transit of all the whaling fleet, which can here ship all their fleet, which can here ship all their cil and bone to Eastern markets and save 700 miles of ocean travel. which they now have to take to transport these products to San Francisco.

Reasons

Why

Port Townsend

Is Destined

to be a

City

Importance!

EASON 7: It will be the head quarters of the fishing business. The Union Pacific Railroad Co. stated to the senate committee on relations with Canada who were here in 1889, that they intend putting in refrigerator cars to take fresh fish through on the long had at greatly reduced rates, and will here ship all the salmon pack, as well as other fish products destined for the interior and Eastern markets. EASON 8: It is the point of departure for all passengers and freight to British Columbia and Alasks, and its unrivaled scenery makes it the admiration of all tourists who have ever risited Puget Sound.

EASON 9: It is the location of the smelling works of Irondale, on Port TownsendBay, where the best charceal fron known in the world is produced. A plant will be put up at these works by the company to manufacture steel plates for boilers and for building vessels, steel rails and sil iron material required for railroad construction and every kind of ron for blacksmith use. EASON 10: Port Townsend, by its geographical postition, is intimately and directly connected with Fordand, being due connected with Portland, being doe north, as can be seen on any map.

The Willamette meridian, which commenses in Portland as its initial point, terminates in Port Townsend bay, between Point Hudson and Marrowstone Point. The Port Townsend Southern railroad will soon connect the two cities, and Port Townsend will become in fact one of Portland's most important shipping points. EASON 11: Because on the peninsula between Port Townsend and Port Discovery bays will be built within the very near future the most important city on the Pactific Cotes, a city that will be fostered and developed by the Union Pacific railroad, which will here have its
